

A SPOOKY, FEMINIST MODERN GOTHIC

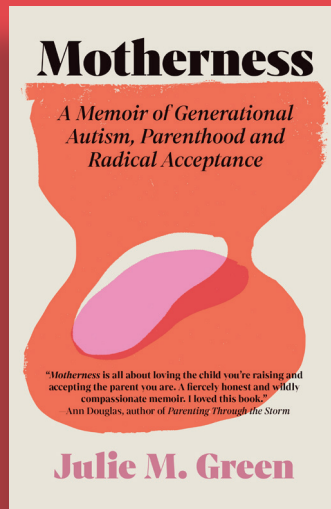

SEPT 30, 2025

978-1-77041-842-4, $24.95 CAN

A spooky, atmospheric, and feminist modern gothic tale with a tough-as-nails female protagonist who must find her elderly aunt, long suspected of being a witch.

A MEMOIR ABOUT GENERATIONAL AUTISM

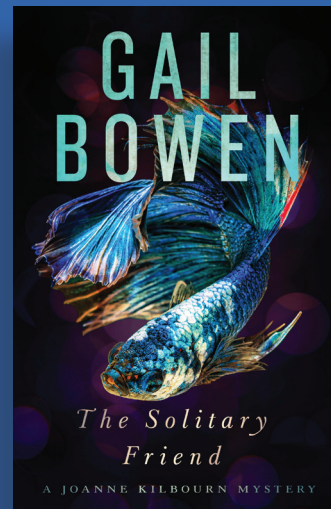

SEPT 23, 2025

978-1-77041-802-8, $24.95 CAN

Motherness offers a deeply personal account of an autistic mother raising an autistic child. Tender and inclusive, it covers sensory processing, meltdowns, masking, empathy, bullying, special interests, and more.

THE PENULTIMATE JOANNE KILBOURN MYSTERY

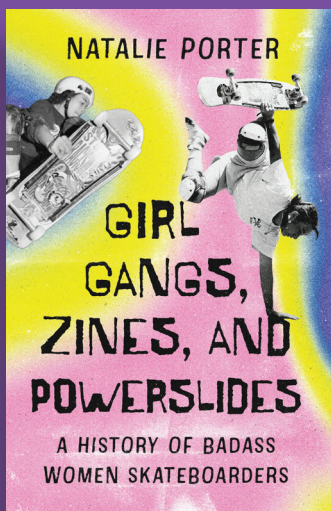

OCT 14, 2025

978-1-77041-815-8, $36.95 CAN

Crime Writers Grand Master Award winner Gail Bowen returns with the 23rd, and penultimate, installment in the Joanne Kilbourn series.

CELEBRATE WOMEN IN SKATEBOARDING

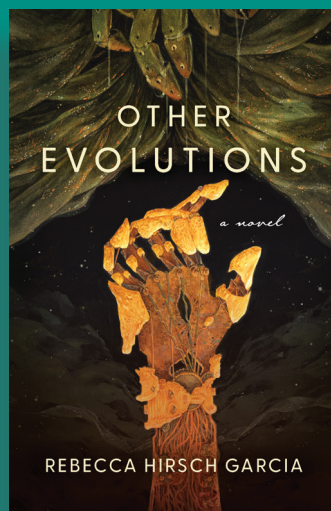

SEPT 16, 2025

978-1-77041-792-2, $26.95 CAN

A vibrant, meticulously researched celebration of the women and non-binary skateboarders who defied a hostile industry and redefined skateboarding around the world.

A SPECULATIVE DEBUT WITH DIVERSE CHARACTERS

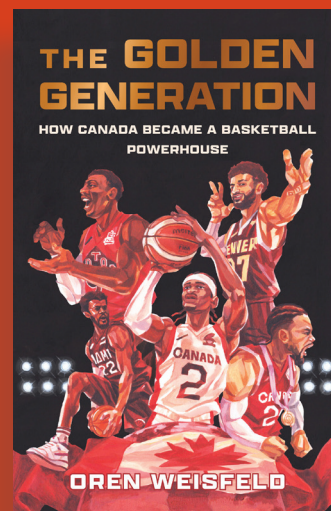

OCT 7, 2025

978-1-77041-726-7, $24.95 CAN

With sharp human insight and unflinching prose, Other Evolutions is a dark, speculative debut with diverse characters and searing insight, perfect for readers of Iain Reid and Emily St. John Mandel.

HOW CANADA BECAME A BASKETBALL POWERHOUSE

NOV 4, 2025

978-1-77041-799-1, $24.95 CAN

Discover the untold story of Canadian men's basketball, from decades of struggle to the resurgence of a new generation of NBA stars that propelled Canada back to international glory.

SOMETHING FOR EVERYONE. ECW PRESS.